

Lieutenant General (Ret.) Carroll H. Dunn Sr.

Year of Commission: 1938

BS in Mechanical Engineering

LT. Gen Dunn is a decorated World War II and Vietnam veteran having earned three Awards of the Distinguished Service medal, two awards of the Legion of Merit, a Silver Star, and 3 awards of the Bronze Star. As an engineering officer, he supervised the construction of numerous projects to include: the NASA Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, Texas, Arkansas River Navigation and Flood Control Project, the Titan II Missile Base, and the Ballistic Missile Early Warning System for the Air Force. LTG Dunn served in many different and challenging assignments including: the Director of Construction and Logistics for the Military Assistance Command Vietnam (J4) for Gen. Westmoreland, Deputy Chief of the Army Corps of Engineers, and Director of the Defense Nuclear Agency.

Year Inducted: 2013