

LTC (Ret.) Christine (Wolfframm) McGuffey

Year of Commission: 1976

BS in Education

LTC McGuffey started her career as leading from the front as a Cadet. She served as the first female Battalion Commander for the Army's ROTC. After commissioning, she served thirteen years on active duty with assignments at Ft. Huachuca, AZ; Ft. Stewart and Hunter Army Airfield, GA; Munich, Germany; Washington D.C. and Ft. Meade, Maryland. The highlight of her career was her command of the 5th MI Company in Munich, Germany responsible for the debriefing of defectors, refugees, and resettlers from then East Germany and Soviet Union Bloc countries. She continued to serve in the Reserves for an additional 10 years. She concluded her Army career serving at the National Security Agency. She currently serves as the Director of Outreach and Discipleship for her church in Laurel, Maryland.

Year Inducted: 2013