

Major General Henry Dixon

Year of Commission: 1989

BS in Leisure Studies, later a Juris Doctorate from John Marshall Law School

General Dixon was commissioned as an Infantry Officer into the U.S. Army in 1989 and has honorably served over 35 years on active duty and in the Army National Guard. He has extensive experience in leadership at various levels, including commanding the 2nd Battalion, 130th Infantry Regiment and later the 33rd Infantry Brigade Combat Team. He has served as the Director of Operations G3/5/7 at U.S. Army Central, served in the National Guard Bureau and was the Deputy Director of Operations at U.S. Northern Command. He has deployed in support of Operation IRAQI FREEDOM and Operation ENDURING FREEDOM. Outside of his military achievements, Major General Dixon is a highly respected attorney and community leader. He holds a Juris Doctorate from John Marshall Law School and possesses the prestigious Martindale-Hubble BV Rating for his strong legal counsel. He has successfully litigated 28 jury trials. His dedication to public service is further evidenced by his tenure on the Sauk Valley Community College Board of Trustees.

Year Inducted: 2024